ORINDA MOTHERS CLUB FUND for playground equipment at the local schools now has $126.75 added to it, through the net proceeds from the Orinda SUN's subscription drive which ended last June. Added to an earlier sum of $135, the amount from that source this year is $261.75. Publisher Herman Silverman (left) hands a check for the $126.75 to Mrs. Robert Bigler, 1951-52 club president, while Mrs. Marvin Bonds, current president, and Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff are obviously pretty happy about the whole thing.

Sun Will Sponsor Political Debate

Hear ye! Hear ye! It will be free-for-all forensics—John F. Baldwin Jr. versus Robert L. Condon, and Donald Doyle versus Harold Mutnick!

It's an old-fashioned yet up-to-the-minute political rally at Acalanes High School auditorium Tuesday night, October 28, under sponsorship of The SUN.

The rival candidates for Congress and the State Assembly will debate the issues of their campaigns. All candidates have been invited and have accepted.

REGULAR DEBATE procedure will be followed, with rebuttal and all the other talk-trimmings of public persuasion. Coming just a week before the November 4 election, the program will be a significant campaign event, in the true American spirit of open, free discussion.

There will be no admission charge. In addition to the debates, the program will include entertainment, now being arranged. The complete program will be announced shortly.

FIRST DEBATE will be that of the Assembly candidates—Republican Doyle versus Democrat Mutnick.

Then will come the Congressional candidates — Republican Baldwin versus Democrat Condon.

Plans for the October 28 rally have been under way for over a month. Originally, the debate question was planned as: Is a Republican or a Democratic administration best for the United States? However, the candidates felt they would rather debate the issues in their own particular campaigns and so the present arrangement has been made.

Rick's Seeks To Withdraw Liquor Appeal

Name DeCosta to Planning Board; Cummings Decries Public Pressure

Joseph D. DeCosta of 2 Normandy Lane was named Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors to the County Planning Commission.

DeCosta succeeds John L. Stoffel of 12 Richard Court, who resigned recently because of pressure of personal business and because of "circumstances beyond my control."

DeCosta, last year's president of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association and now delegate from that organiaztion to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, was recommended by Board Chairman H. L. Cummings, supervisor from this district.

He was sworn in Tuesday night by Deputy District Attorney Mortimer Veale. His term ends November 24, 1954.

When the board accepted Stoffel's resignation with regret Tuesday, Cummings said he had heard rumors that pressure had been brought to bear on Stoffel's employer, the American Trust Company, to get him to resign because certain commission actions of his had not met favor by these groups.

"If that's true, it's a shame, for Stoffel was doing a fine job," Cummings said. Stoffel heads the American Trust Company branch in Orinda.

Asked about this yesterday, Stoffel said he did not wish to comment. "I've resigned, and I feel like a free man," he remarked.

STOFFEL WAS first named to the Planning Commission on January 10, 1949, to fill the unexpired term of William Penn Mott Jr. On November 24, 1950, he was appointed for a four-year term.

DeCOSTA, 52, is manager of the Water Distribution Division of the East Bay Municipal Utility District. He and his wife, Irene, and their three children—Douglas David, 4, Jorene, 3, and Beverly, 10 months—live at their normandy Lane home. The DeCostas have been Orinda residents for six and a half years.

A lieutenant-colonel in the U. S. Army in World War II, DeCosta was in charge of restoration of water and power facilities in the Netherlands for the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces. He received the American Bronze Star and, from Queen Wilhelmina, the Order of Orange Nassau Award, with sword, one of top military honors of Holland.

IT WAS DURING the war that DeCosta and his bride-to-be met, in London. Later they renewed acquaintance in the Netherlands, where the future Mrs. DeCosta was in the Netherlands Army, as a member of a Red Cross relief unit that had been militarized. She came to this country in 1946, became Mrs. DeCosta—and the DeCostas promptly moved to Orinda. Mrs. DeCosta was born in London but was reared in Holland until the war broke out; her mother is Dutch.

Born in Hanford, Calif., DeCosta graduated from the University of California in 1923, receiving his Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering. He is chairman of the American Water Works Association, is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and is active in the Oakland Lions Club. He also is a member of the Lake Merritt Post of the American Legion.

CUMMINGS SAID he had not received the Orinda Association board's recommendation of Boone Robinson for the planning post until he had already committed himself to DeCosta, with whom he had previously discussed the matter. "I've written the Orinda Association about this, and I think they'll be quite happy with the choice," he stated.

Stoffel this week received a letter from the Orinda Association, signed by Secretary Charles Blue, expressing "sincere appreciation for the excellent work that you have done for the Orinda Area. . . ."

Drive-In Asks State to Drop License Request

A. R. Bliesner, co-owner of Rick's Drive Inn, announced yesterday that he, Mrs. Helen Groves and C. J. Garibotti are withdrawing their application for an on-sale general liquor license for Rick's.

He said that Attorney Richard C. Johnston of Richmond was notifying the State Board of Equalization that the application is being dropped.

Attorney George Gordon of Martinez, who with Johnston represents the applicants, said he had not heard of this action from Bliesner but admitted he had written to Johnston asking whether Johnston thought the quest for a license should go ahead or be dropped, in view of recent developments. He said he had not received a reply from Johnston.

Several phone calls by The SUN to Johnston's home and office were unavailing in efforts to reach him.

ANNOUNCEMENT THAT the application was being withdrawn did away with necessity for a final hearing before the State Board of Equalization in Sacramento, which had been set for October 30.

This hearing had been scheduled by the state board, as required under the administrative Code of Procedure, when, two weeks ago, the board, acting contrary to the recommendation of the hearing officer who conducted the August 26 hearing in Martinez, voted unanimously to deny the application.

At that time, James H. Quinn, District 2 board member, explained that a final hearing before the board was necessary unless the applicants withdrew their request.

DESPITE PROTESTS by hundreds of individuals and many organizations, based on the proximity of the proposed detached bar to Acalanes High School, Ivores R. Dains ,who conducted the Martinez hearing, recommended issuance of the license.

Denial of the application was recommended by State Liquor Administrator Ed Clark and was moved by Quinn.

Bliesner's announcement of withdrawal found opponents to the application, represented by Attorney John A. Bohn and led by Mrs. Fred H. Knobel of Lafayette, preparing to marshal their forces for the expected showdown hearing on October 30. In this activity, a meeting had been scheduled for Sunday, October 26, 3 p.m., at Acalanes, which representatives from all organizations which had made written protest were asked to attend.

Col. Herrick Talks to Rotary

Col. C. C. Herrick, a retired Army officer, spoke to members of the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday at the Willows.

Col. Herrick talked on the constitution and responsible citizens. Apathy of voters has given the president a lot of added power, he said. As an example, Col. Herrick referred to the sending of troops to Korea in a police action, while only Congress can declare an all out war.

Maynard Buehler served as president in the absence of Leighton MacGregor who was away on a business trip.

Dr. Ted Lyon was program chairman.

Next week, a vocational meeting has been planned. At that time, George Eberhart, Gordon Heche, Jim Kiral, Ted Lyon, and Herb Hauser will give brief talks about themselves and their business.

Cub Pack 211 Meet

A meeting of Cub Pack 211 will be held in the nursery room of the Orinda Community Church tonight at 7:30.

This will be the first meeting under the leadership of new cubmaster, Bernard Wilber.

Condon Accused of 'Commie Sympathy'

Gardiner Johnson, San Francisco attorney and former member of the State Assembly, described Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, Democratic candidate for Congress in the new Sixth District, as "a leader in organizations listed as communist front groups by legislative agencies" Tuesday night.

Johnson and Mrs. Mildred Younger, vice-chairman of the Southern Division of the Republican State Central Committee, spoke to 1000 persons who packed a rally at Acalanes High School auditorium sponsored by the Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda Republican Women's Clubs.

CHARGING THAT Condon has been "a consistent spokesman against investigations of communists and subversives" and "an active participant in usual communist line activities," Johnson said:

"The record of Candidate Robert L. Condon can be documented by references from the 'People's World,' the West Coast mouthpiece of the Communist Party. This must be one of his favorite newspapers, because he's been a subscriber to it at times dating back to 1938, the year he graduated from law school."

"The People's World doesn't like John Baldwin. But Candidate Condon is a favorite of the People's World. The communist paper refers to his voting record with approval many times."

The speaker described Condon as an advertiser in the People's World and as "a consistent opponent of all legislation aimed at communists."

The attorney referred to Condon's participation in the attack on Federal Judge Harold R. Medina for Judge Medina's handling of the New York trial of 11 top drawer Communists in 1950.

"THIS WAS THE TRIAL in which Judge Medina sent the five attorneys for the communists to jail because of their continued courtroom abuses," Johnson said. He exhibited a letterhead in which Condon's name was printed as a participant in the court proceeding on behalf of the attorneys and attacking Judge Medinas' decision.

"It is another act in a long and consistent record, past and present," Johnson said.

The attorney raised the question of the Armed Services Committee appointment by declaring that it is traditional that the representative of Solano County be named on this committee because of location there of Mare Island, Benicia Arsenal and Travis Air Base. He then referred to the Condon record.

The former Berkeley assemblyman also touched upon Contra Costa's military installations interest in Camp Stoneman and the Port Chicago Naval Base.

JOHNSON OFFERED what he termed "documentary evidence" as he comprehensively reviewed Condon's career. He criticized Condon's partnership with Attorney Bertram Edises, whom he termed "a Communist party functionary."

Johnson cited Condon's two votes, in separate sessions of the Legislature, against a loyalty oath for state employees and said Condon even opposed allowing the people to vote upon a loyalty oath. He cited Condon's recorded legislative vote against commendation of University of Washington officials for ousting communists and Condon's listing as speaker before "communist front groups." Johnson said:

"Condon not only opposes all loyalty oaths for public employees; he didn't even want the people of California to have the right to vote this November on whether or not all public employees should sign an oath of loyalty."

"In December, 1948, the People's World proclaimed him as a keynoter at a conference of the 'Civil Rights Congress' in San Francisco," Johnson said. "This 'Congress' has been labeled as a national communist-front organization by legislative committees. The People's World has billed Mr. Condon as a speaker at meetings of the 'California Legislative Conference'.

"I'm not going to call anyone a communist," Johnson remarked, "but I will go on the assumption that if something walks like a duck, quacks like a duck, swims like a duck and associates with ducks there's a reasonable presumption that it is a duck."

Directors Rescind Garbage Law

In less than five minutes last night directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District repealed the garbage franchise ordinance. The vote on William Malott's motion was 4-0 in favor of repeal. Elliott Johnson refrained from voting. There was no discussion.

The controversial garbage franchise ordinance was just about a "dead duck" yesterday.

On Monday, Attorney David A. Dolgin appeared before Superior Judge Hugh H. Donovan in Martinez and filed for dismissal "without prejudice" of the temporary restraining order against the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District Board. This order, obtained by Dolgin and Attorney Robert L. Condon on behalf of Boyd Olney Jr. Pacheco independent garbageman, had prevented the board from granting an exclusive garbage collection franchise to anyone.

THE GARBAGE ORDINANCE had been passed by the old board, prior to the recent Sanitary District election. Majority of the new board is opposed to it.

Despits the filing of the dismissal request, Judge Donovan went on to deny the temporary injunction asked in the original complaint.

John A. Nejedly, attorney for the Sanitary District ,was also present, and he later stated that the judge's action "in effect sustained the actions of the district board and the validity of the ordinance."

QUESTION OF THE validity of this and other ordinances of the district board was the decisive factor in refusal by the new board to rescind the ordinance last week.

However, Nejedly said that now that the court had cleared up the question of validity of district board action, the ordinance would probably be rescinded at last night's regular board meeting. That meeting, at the district office at 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Walnut Creek, was held as this issue of THE SUN was going to press.

Following Monday's court session, Dolgin said there was no discussion by counsel that day before Judge Donovan, and that the entire matter was over very quickly.

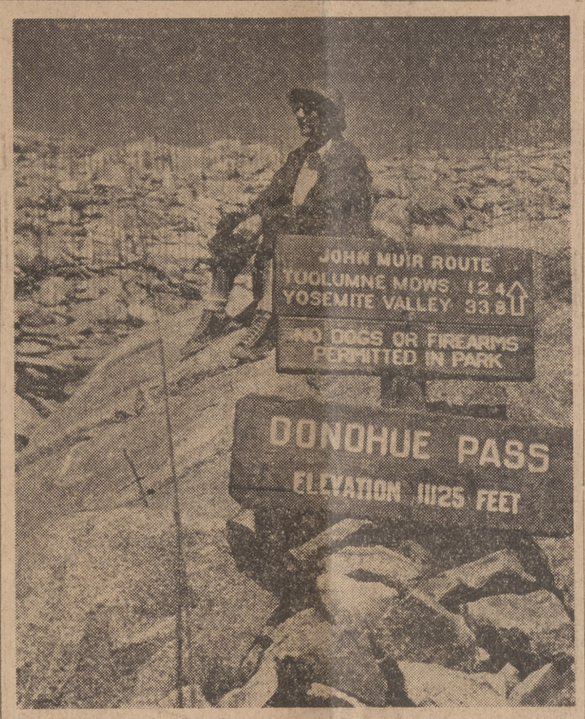
Old Man Weather Helps To Unite Political Foes

Republicans and Democrats alike have been getting "hot" in Orinda during the past week . . . and not just from the election campaigns.

Thanks to Old Man Weather, During the week from September 25 through Wednesday, heat in this area reached a total of 101 degrees on both September 25 and Wednesday.

In direct contrast to the heat, early Tuesday morning a cold of 48 degrees was recorded.

Hot and cold; at least, there wasn't a single drop of rain reported in Orinda.



11,125 FEET UP at Donohue Pass—no wonder Mae Morrow, wife of Fred Morrow of Orinda Community Church, looks inspired as well as relaxed as she scans the view from her vantage-point at the southeast edge of Yosemite National Park. The Morrows and their three children did a lot of Sierra exploring recently.

Back-Packing Morrows Enjoy Sierra

Not the only but perhaps the most enthusiastic summer back-pakers in Orinda are the Fred Morrow family.

The minister of the Orinda Community Church, his wife Mae, daughters Marjorie and Dorothy and son Don have covered a considerable part of the Sierra on foot in past summers. And 1952 was no exception, as in August they took advantage of perfect mountain weather to explore two regions noted for their scenic beauty in the eastern part of Yosemite National Park and beyond in the Sierra National Forest southeast of the Park.

FIRST SECTION selected for camping was on Shadow Creek east of Mt. Ritter, Banner Peak and the Minerets. Here they were joined by the Ewart Phair family and their guest, Bob Smith, a student at Acalanes High School.

Both families were "packed in" from Agnew Meadow, reached from Mammoth over Mineret Pass. The lakes and heights surrounding the area were explored for pictures and fishing, with several extended hiking trips to Lake Ediza, Iceberg Lake, Lakes Garnet, Thousand Island and Davis. On one trip Rev. Morrow and Don were fortunate enough to catch sight of a coyote.

AFTER LEAVING the Shadow Creek region, the Morrow daughters undertook the familiar hike into the watershed division of the Merced and Tuolumne Rivers south of Tuolumne Meadows, where they stayed at the Vogelsang High Sierra camp.

They were followed a week later by the other members of the family, who set up their "luxury" camp (reached by car over the Tioga Pass) in the upper park and proceeded on foot to the upper origins of the Lyell fork to and beyond Donahue Pass, and returned by way of Evelyn Lake and Tuolumne Pass.

THE SNOWFIELDS on Mounts Lyell and MacClure were found to be very extensive, as they were elsewhere throughout the Sierra. Best fishing on this trip was reported in Ireland Lake in the Vogelsang region.

A solitary three days was spent by mountain enthusiast Morrow in climbing the Sierra crest from Saddlebag Lake near Tioga Summit into McCabe lakes, a trail-less journey which was continued on the return trip to Tuolumne Meadows by way of Young lakes.

Not claiming to be an expert fisherman, he and Don took advantage of the remoter waters to provide an abundance of trout for the party.

Car Submerged-- Tragedy Averted

An accident that could have resulted in tragedy was prevented Sunday night, thanks to the swift work of several local men and organizations.

An auto driven by Robert Boud of Lucile Lane, Lafayette, traveling on Sleepy Hollow Lane in Orinda, crashed into Walter Boysen's private lake at about 8:30.

HARRY E. PECK of 14 Sleepy Hollow Lane heard the crash from his home. He appeared on the scene as Boud's car, headlights still on, as slowly sinking below the surface.

Boud managed to free himself, and Peck threw him a rope.

"He still had his hat and glasses on," Peck commented.

SECONDS LATER, members of the State Highway Patrol, the Contra Costa Patrol and the Orinda Fire Department, and men from Orinda Motors arrived.

Manuel Guido and C. W. Jackson, Orinda firemen, made their way to the car which had sunk nearly 20 feet under the water. They swam under the car in order to se if anyon was trapped inside.

No one was in the auto, so the two firemen helped place garppling hooks around the car. After a few hours, the vehicle was pulled from the lake.

JIM HENDRICKSON and Harvey Smith from Orinda Motors and Dave Kurrels and Chuck Moore of the Contra Costa Patrol were at the accident.

Several of those present reported that Boud hod been drinking before the accident.

The Highway Patrol Officers did not make a report of the accident, since it happened on private property and no one was badly hurt, and they did not hold Boud.

After the excitement had ended, Boud was helped home by Mr. and Mrs. Peck.

Progress Made For Tunnel Signs

Andy Blalock, Orinda Chamber of Commerce manager, reported on his attempt to secure signs reminding motorists to turn off their lights as they leave the Broadway Tunnel, during yesterday's meeting of the chamber at Casa Orinda.

In his report, Blalock stated he had contacted the AAA and was told that they are already working on the problem.

"Such a project needs the State Highway Commissioner's clearance, an AAA official told Blalock.

During the chamber's previous meeting, Dr. Edwin McCORD, a chamber director, had brought this idea before the group.

Although a winning slogan in the recently sponsored Chamber contest was selected, the person's name will not be announced until the winner has been notified. This is expected to be some time near the end of next week.

Object of the contest was to describe Orinda in seven words or less. A $10 cash prize will be awarded the winner.

Condon Says Charge Is Unfounded, Old Story

Assemblyman Robert L. Condon, Democratic nominee for Congress from the Sixth District, yesterday accused his Republican opposition of a deliberate campaign to confuse and mislead the voters. Condon's statement came after San Francisco Attorney Gardiner Johnson told a G. O. P. meeting at Acalanes High School Tuesday night that Condon was a communist sympathizer.

"The charge," Condon stated, "is as unfounded as it is menacing. Mr. Johnson, as a special-interest lobbyist in Sacramento, is well paid to put across his legislative program. His attack, in my opinion, is the direct result of my opposition to his program because I felt it was against the welfare of the people of my district."

"THE REPUBLICANS have redoubled their frantic efforts to smear my character and my loyalty to my country," Condon said. "Thus far in the campaign they have relied on the method of the country club whisper. Now they are coming into the open and we can expect every one of their mercenaries to repeat the lies ovr and ovr again until the election is past.

"There is of course nothing new in their script, since the same actors unsuccessfully read the same lines in 1950 and in 1948. Their play failed them, and the people elected me to the State Legislature in both years. I am confident that this vicious technique will fail again.

"Mr. Johnson is the hired lobbyist of one of the more powerful Sacramento pressure groups, the Associated General Contractors and other employers. His representative and law associate, Sam Shenk, has testified many times before legislative committees of which I am a member. Johnson himself makes no committee appearances, and when I last inquired, had not even bothered to register as a lobbyist. He is, however, one of the familiar group in Sacramento, found at each session, buttonholing in the corridors members of the Legislature in an attempt to influence their vote.

"I HAVE RESISTED his pressure just as I have been independent of all the big lobbies. I fought bills he supported in 1949 and in 1951 to restrict unemployment and disability insurance. I have been on the opposite side on nearly every measure in which he was interested that affected labor-management relations.

"His attack in this campaign is no surprise since he gave much the same speech before the same audience in 1950. His attack is not altogether unwelcome since I know th lobbyists have lined up on the side of my opponent and this I want the people to know.

MY RECORD AS A LEGISLATOR, as a lawyer and as a citizen is open. My opponents do not have to search out the back files of a communist newspaper to know where I stand. I recognize communism and the Communist Party as a danger and an enemy to our decomcracy. I have no sympathy for its aims or purposes.

"I have consistently voted for every measure to establish and finance our civilian defense and to strengthen our anti-sabotage laws. I have supported the United Nations and in the intervention against communist aggression. Under existing laws, communists are being prosecuted and convicted, and they can be discharged from public employ. The direct approach to the problem is the only sound approach.

"The loyalty oath measures which I opposed, although one has been law for over a year, have not and will not expose subversives. As Governor Adlai Stevenson pointed out in vetoing such an oath in Illinois, 'The whole notion of loyalty inquisitions is a natural characteristic of the police state and not of democracy.' The effect of such legislation, he said, 'will be less the detection of subversives and more the intimidation of honest citizens.'

"Adlai Stevenson and I are not alone in condemning loyalty oaths. Such men as Govenor Earl Warren, Harold Stassen, State Court Justice Jesse Carter and hundreds of other outstanding persons have condemned one or another fo the loyalty oaths.

"IN ADDITION, leading newspapers have written editorials condemning these oaths. The California Democratic Party, in its platform and by specific resolution, has supported my position in opposing these oaths. Indeed, the Contra Costa Bar Association, of which my opponent is a member, by resolution urged me to cast my vote against a loyalty oath for lawyers.

"Along with dozens of other lawyers, I signed a brief asking the U. S. Supreme Court to re-examine the powers of a federal judge to sentence attorneys for contempt. I was then, and I still am, concerned about the power of a Court to sentence a lawyer to six months or even longer without a trial by jury or other safeguards. This power has serious implications. An attorney is charged by law to represent his client by every legitimate means. Effective representation can be jeopardized if a lawyer must always tailor his conduct to the threat of a lengthy jail sentence.

"I have been criticized for making speeches before two organizations called un-American by 'investigators' for Senator Tenney's State un-American Activities Committee. I have made hundreds of speeches in the past four years and when accepting an invitation to talk, I am not going to ask for clearance from any employee of Tenney, the Gerald L. K. Smith-America First candidate for vice-president of the United States.

"MY ASSOCIATION for two years with an Oakland labor law firm has been repeatedly thrown at me in the past. I have been in the field of labor relations ever since I left law school. I think I have done an effective job as a laywer and I certainly have no intention of apologizing for the legal work that I have performed.

"I have been accused of having supported Henry Wallace. Actually in 1947, more than a year before the election, I was the official observer sent to a conference of Democrats trying to secure for him the Democratic nomination. When Wallace left the Democratic Party, I ceased to support him. I campaigned and voted for Harry S. Truman in 1948, as a glance at the campaign literature I issued would quickly reveal.

"I am, of course, a believer in civil liberties. I reserve the right to defend such liberties, particularly from attacks by such opponents of our basic rights as Mr. Johnson."

Billy Pedder First 'Kickoff' Winner

Billy Pedder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pedder of 4163 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, picked the winners in 13 out of 14 football games last weekend—and won the prize of an official-weight day-or-night football in last week's Kickoff Kontest sponsored by the Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda Suns.

Runner-up was Edward Burr of 1144 Brown Avenue, Lafayette, who also correctly guessed 13 winners, but whose entry came in after Billy's.

Close behind came 10 entrants with 12 winners each—David Mittleholtz, Tom Toland and C. Dean Starr of Walnut Creek; John Kennedy, W. B. Scarborough, Jerry Combs, David B. Stewart and James M. McDowell of Lafayette; Stevie Unnevehr of Orinda and Neil Nuotio of Concord.

This week's Kickoff Kontest in the SUNS offers as a prize two reserved-seat tickets to the Stanford-Oregon State game at Stanford October 11. Entries must be in the SUN office or postmarked before 11 a.m. this Saturday. See the Walnut Creek, Lafayette or Orinda Sun for details.

Like Pete Veitch – PGE Survey Took Work, Time Also

By ALVIN GUTHERTZ

Henley Worthington, Pacific Gas and Electric Company district manager from the Berkeley office, was the fellow who followed in the footsteps of Peter Veitch.

It was Veitch who made the survey of the special Orinda electric rate area for the Orinda Association, but it was Worthington and A. B. Moor, commercial representative of the company, who made the survey for PG&E.

THIS AREA, which includes sections of Moraga Meadows, Moraga Gardens and Moraga Woodlands, is now under study by the Public Utility Commission.

Worthington spent from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. one Saturday, stalked and back-tracked over 70 miles of pole line, and mapped plots of every home in the area under survey.

Moor would drive for a while and Worthington would plot and then the two would switch duties, and neither was promised a half-cent per house, as in the case of Tommy, 15-year-old son of Peter Veitch. Veitch, in order to get his son's interest, offered the youth a half-cent per house checked. This transaction ended up with Papa Veitch $11 in the red.

THE SURVEY of the PG&E, like the one made by Veitch, included each road which is covered by PG&E line and service, and, as Worthington said, "was quite a workout."

After getting the complete survey and figuring the density per pole mile, the boundaries were drawn and finally submitted to the P.U.C.

Although five areas were surveyed, only one section, by changing and adding certain locations, has qualified and is under study by the PUC.

In fact, this area qualified just "under the wire." In order to be entitled to a special electric rate area, the territory covered must have at least 50 customers per pole mile. The land now under study has 51.95 customers per pole mile.

A SIMILAR SURVEY is made almost every two years, Worthington said, but this is the first time that any area in Orinda has been able to qualify.

"As Orinda grows, the special electic area can extend," he said.

If the area for Orinda is passed, Orinda would be switched from a Zone 6 classification, as it now is, to a Zone 5 classification.

Shell Scientists From This Area At Eastern Meets

Over 40 scientists and technologists — research chemists, chemical engineers, and others — have gone east from Shell Development's Emeryville Laboratories to attend the fall meetings of national scientific and technical societies.

Nearly half of the group comes from the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek-Concord area.

R. G. LARSEN, 3844 Happy Valley Road, and J. N. Wilson, 2688 Mosswood Drive, both of Lafayette, have special roles. Larsen, at Chicago, was to lead a discussion forum on Physics and Chemistry of Rubbing Solids, sponsored by the American Society of Lubrication Engineers at a symposium on the fundamentals of friction and lubrication. He was also to attend other technical meetings. Wilson was to read a paper at the American Chemical Society meeting in Atlantic City, dealing with the Mechanism of the Catalytic Hydrogenation of Olefins over Metals.

Also attending the A.C.S. meeting from Lafayette were H. Newey, 730 Los Palos Drive, and L. B. Scott, 1143 Perales Ave., while D. C. Holmes, 3963 Highland Drive, was to attend a meeting of the Association for Computing Machinery at Tronto, Canada.

THE ORINDA- to-Atlantic City trip was made by F. M. McMillan, 8 Hall Drive; G. K. Nelson, 98 Martha Road, and Miss R. V. Wingfield, 6 Camino Don Miguel, while F. F. Rust, 61 Van Ripper Lane, was to attend a meeting of the Faraday Society in Toronto.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I don't believe there is another road in Contra Costa County in a worse state of repair than that intersection located at Valley View Drive and Lost Valley Drive.

True, the county recently did a face lifting job on Valley View Drive for about 500 feet then "forgot" the rest of the job. Likewise on Don Gabriel which runs into Valley View. I am wondering if that is what Mr. Sauer meant when he said the jobs were completed.

We had Supervisor Cummings Over in the Valley last winter (before election) and he made many promises to repair that particular intersection which at that time was almost impassable, and we hesitate to think what the place will be like when the rains commence.

Our improvement club has stacks of correspondence with county officials but correspondence does not pave the road. Just whom do we have to "see" to have this work completed?

We appreciate your efforts to improve conditions in and around Orinda and could use some of your assistance in our behalf.

Very truly yours,

L. M. Carroll

Allen Family Home From Summer Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen, Susan and Dick, all of 76 Orchard Road, returned home recently after spending the summer at their ranch at Coarsegold, California.

A good part of the time was spent by the Allen family doing construction work on their home at the ranch.

The vacation was slightly marred when Allen stepped into a hole and tore a leg muscle shortly before the group was to return to Orinda. Although his leg is still bandaged, he reports that he's feeling "100 per cent better."

Louis Barr Helps Hospital Campaign

Louis Barr of 16 Los Amigos served as strategist for a fund-raising drive for the building of a 49-bed hospital in Lebanon, Oregon.

This campaign has been described as "an adventure in community enterprise which helped a town find itself."

Barr, a professional counselor and head of the Barr Method of Planning and Financing, has had success in raising money for hospitals, motels, hotels and ice rinks.

An article in the September 13 issue of the Saturday Evening Post on the Lebanon Hospital project mentioned Barr and his work.

By coincidence, the first baby born in the Lebanon Hospital wah the son of a Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barr. However, the boy's father and Louis Barr of Orinda are not at all related.

Merritt Hospital in Oakland has played an important part in the life of Ellen Johnston, 18-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnston, 16 Sleepy Hollow Lane.

Cub Pack 32 Meets Tonight At Scout Hut

A meeting of Cub Pack 32 has been set for tonight at the Scout Hut starting at 7:30 p.m.

This meeting is being held at the Scout House instead of Orinda School because the school's auditorium is being used for classes.

NEW CUB members are Ricky Collins, Steve Miller, Grigg DeWitt, Tommy Kisner, Terry Hornibrook, Tom Rodgers and Bill Schwarck.

Former Cub Pack 52 members who have joined Pack 32 are Peter Van Gilluwe, Barden Wilmar and Stephen Joses.

During a den mothers' meeting Monday, Bob Rochester, cubmaster, suggested that the pack follow the example of other Cub units and start a Den Dads group.

"THE DEN DADS would be a great help to Den Mothers in keeping boys in order at pack meetings, in setting up chairs, and helping with games or skits from time to time."

Theme for this month is fire prevention and Glen Holtwick, assistant cubmaster, said he would secure a person to lecture on this subject at the November meeting.

In the meantime, during their den meetings, the dens will develop projects on fire prevention if they desire.

Mrs. Robert Thaman, den mother, brought up a discussion of baseball practice and it was cuggested that this can be held on Saturday mornings when the weather permits.

St. Stephen's Issues Call for Choir Members

Urgent call it out for singers to participate in the choir of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda, which will perform under the direction of Sherwood Thatcher, one of the Bay Area's foremost choirmasters, with Mrs. T. J. Fahay, popular local organist, as regular accompanist.

No special musical proficiency is necessary, according to Tatcher. Any experience in high school glee club work, or a capella groups of any sort is sufficient to permit membership in the choir. Rehearsals are held each Wednesday night from 8 until 9 at the Orinda Community Center.

Of wide experience as a choirmaster, Thatcher came to Orinda from St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Oakland, where he had directed the singing group for nearly four years. Previously, he conducted the choirs at Bethany Lutheran Church in Berkeley, and Calvary Cathedral in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he also taught voice.

His own musical education included study with the famed Frantz Proschowski, who trained Galli-Curci, Tito Schipa, and other operatic and concert notables.

After receiving his masters degree in speech correction at San Francisco State College, Thatcher entered the field of speech therapy. He has instructed the cerebral palsied at the Christina B. Cameron School in Richmond and is at present in charge of speech correction at Richmond Union High School, El Cerrito High School, Portola Junior High and Harry Ells Junior High School in Richmond.

ASIDE FROM his extensive work as a speech therapist, and choirmaster at Bethany Lutheran Church and St. Stephen's, both he and his wife, Kitty, are vrey active in little theater groups in the Bay Area. At present they are with the Kensington Theater Guild.

Ballard Family Returns from Year in Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Seaver Ballard and Tom and Linnie, all of 235 Glorietta Boulevard, returned home recently after a 13-month stay in Amsterdam.

Although the Ballard family stayed in Holland during most of the trip, they found time to visit Belgium, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, England and Denmark, where they saw all the famous landmarks.

"WE WERE treated very well," Mrs. Ballard said, "most of the people in Europe feel indebted to America for its part in the last war."

Holland is completely rebuilt from the war's devastation, the country is clean, and the people friendly.

THE BALLARD youngsters went to school in Holland. Tom, who is 7, had multiplication in the first grade, while Linnie, who is 10, was learning French in the fourth grade.

"Children in Holland have a longer school day, and they also go to class on Saturday mornings," Mrs. Ballard said.

Although Tom and Linnie had some trouble getting used to reading English when they returned to Glorietta School this fall, they were both ahead of their class in arithmetic, and have been put into their correct grades.

Mrs. Ballard summed up her entire pourney by saying, "It's good to be back home in Orinda."

Laughter, Music Spark Playshop's 'Weep No More'

"Weep No More My Lady," currently being presented by the Lafayette Playshop at the Town Hall, will bring to light again tomorrow night and the nights of October 10, 11, 18 and November 1 some of the gayer moments in Stephen Foster's life. On October 24 and 25 the Parkmead P.T.A. will take advantage of this "education with music" at the Parkmead Grammar School.

Most of Stephen Foster's songs are sung in "Weep No More My Lady." Soloists Bruce Handley, Frances Shurtleff and Adrienne Sowers do justice to the beautiful melodies with trained voices of a caliber that the Playshop is very proud to present.

The cast, costumed in 1850 style, also joins in to sing and dance to the famous music and draw a carming picture of the life that was Stephen Foster's.

Adding to the natural comedy of a play given in the stilted 19th Century style are the many entrances and exits of E. P. Christy, king of minstrel men, played by Jan Hamilton, who conducts his men on and off the scene with gust throughout the play.

Also adding laughs to the show are Stephen's Home Town Singing Society, who, with voices of a caliber that the Playshop is NOT very proud to present, prove that even they cannot murder a Foster song.

Curtain time is 8:30. Join the crowd for an evening of fun and good music.

Communion Rites This Sunday at Methodist Church

The Lafayette Community Methodist Church will cooperate in the Worldwide Communion Service program this Sunday. The Communion service will be held at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services.

The Communion meditation is "Suffering." "In our world today when so many suffer in so many different ways, the question in the minds of all of us is why? Does God make us suffer? Why do some people seem to suffer so much? These and other questions will form the basis for the Communion Meditation on Suffering," say Pastors George A. Miller and Harry E. Shaner.

Rev. Shaner made the statement in the paper two weeks ago to the effect that if past history is any indication of the future, the Dads Club would hold a turkey raffle this year. This week, Rev. Shaner stated he was in error and was happy to say so.

He said he has been informed that the Dads Club decided some months ago not to hold a turkey raffle.

"I wish to congratulate the Dads Club on the decision," he said.

Covenant School Promotions Held

Promotion Day exercises were held at Lafayette Covenant Sunday School last Sunday, with Carl H. Bolin, superintendent, in charge.

Particularly attractive was the kindergarten class in their white graduation caps, reciting Bible verses as they were given their certificates of promotion and their little Bibles by their teacher, Mrs. Allison. The members of the class are Linda Winkle, Diane Pradel, Linda Meyers, Chery Slominsky, Loxie Schlosser and Rickie Hughes.

All the children passing from one class to another or from department to department were given diplomas.

Covenant Sunday Schools Compete For Enrollment

As a special feature of Sunday School Rally Month, the Lafayette Covenant Sunday School has accepted a challenge to compete with the Pittsburg Covenant Sunday School in an enrollment race throughout this month.

Rev. C. Nixon is pastor of the Pittsburg Covenant Church, and Rev. Joel S. Peterson is pastor of the Lafayette Covenant Church.

The contest will be based on the percentage increase in attendance from the average for September. Dick Lotter is in charge of the Rally contests.

The Lafayette Sunday School will also compete in the statewide contest sponsored by the Covenant Churches in a nationwide program. Five goals have been set up and these must be reached in order to compete successfully.

Thse goals are: A 10 per cent increase in average attendance, a minimum of two hours of lesson preparation on the part of each teacher, every Sunday School home visited by the teacher, an evaluation of the Sunday School by means of a standardized score card, and one other goal, such as parent-teacher meetings or a leadership training class.

'The Consecrated Christian' Topic Of Rev. Berven

On Sunday morning Pastor Luther Bervan of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette will speak on the sermon topic, "The Consecrated Christian," at both the 8 and 11 o'clock services. A number of new members will be received at the 11 a.m. service. The Sunday School hour begins at 9:30 a.m.

"What is your goal in life? What are you living for?" asks Pastor Berven. "The lives of some people," he observes, "would show that they have answered this question in this manner: 'For me to live is myself. For me to live is success and popularity. For me to live is money.'

"The Apostle Paul, however, answered the question by saying in Philippians 1:21—'for me to live is Christ,' and he proved with his life that he was truly living for his Master."

Water Shortage Hits Moraga--School Closed

Moraga School was closed this week as the result of a water shortage which hit a good portion of Moraga Monday.

Many homes, the tavern and store have also been without water. However, there is plenty of water in the new section.

The Moraga Company supplies water to the area and has so far been unable to locate the cause.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES closed the school as a precautionary measure until the problem can be remedied.

The school has been receiving water through lines connected with the Moraga Company system, which in turn utilizes springs as a source of supply.

Although some outside taps at the school run water, there is insufficient pressure in the school lines for sanitation facilities.

THE SCHOOL property is within territory annexed a year ago to the East Bay Municipal Utility District. The nearest E.B.M.U.D. main is nearly three-quarters of a mile from the school.

An E.B.M.U.D. spokesman said the installation of company water mains has not proceeded as far as Moraga School.

"Due to the fact there is an emergency, we will see if anything can be worked out," he said.

Conferences are now being held with the Moraga Company in an attempt to solve the problem.

Fire Prevention Week Starts Sunday

Fire Prevention Week will be observed nationally next week by proclamation of the President of the United States.

In Lafayette and Orinda, Fire Prevention Week will serve to point out safety measures and controls.

FIRE CHIEFS Shirley Peakes of Lafayette and H. E. Wyatt of Orinda are making plans to visit schools and civic groups, giving talks on fire precautions.

All fire houses in this area will be open to the public for inspection.

"Fire Prevention Week is every week," Zach Montgomery, Orinda Fire Board secretary said. "Purpose of the week is to point out the serious nature of fire. If people are vigilant the year 'round, many fires can be prevented."

Montgomery pointed out that most fires are not of a serious nature, and with public help, losses can be small.

Although the nation's fire losses are at on all-time high ,in both Lafayette and Orinda fire damages are below average so far this year.

CHIEF PEAKES stated, "The Lafayette Fire Department carries out a program of fire prevention throughout the entire year with a slight increase during prevention week to help bring this serious matter to the public's attention."

Schools throughout the area will conduct fire drills during the week and youngsters will visit the local fire houses.

"We cannot combat fires alone," Chief Peakes said. "We must have the cooperation of the entire public."

CHIEF WYATT agreed with Chief Peakes. "Fire Prevention Week must be practiced all year 'round," he said, "and not just one week and then forget about it."

"Fire Prevention Week does a lot of good," Wyatt added.

On a national scale, fire losses will total $730,000,000, it was announced.

SPEAKING OF Fire Prevention Week, Lafayette Fire Board secretary Mel Nielsen said: "As the week gets under way next week, we should be very careful because of the dry weather we have had for the past three weeks.

"A spark of reflection from a bottle in the grass will ignite the grass immediately. If you see anything that will start a fire, take it upon yourself to remove the hazard. If in doubt about lighting fires or burning grass, call the Fire Department and get a permit to be on the safe side.

"Let's make Fire Prevention Week every day in the year and not just one week."

ALMOST HALF of all fires in this area, as in the rest of the nation, are caused by carelessness.

In his proclamation, President Truman urged every man, woman and child to contribute to the nationwide effort to safeguard America's strength by accepting a "personal responsibility" in Fire Prevention Week.

Men and boys who reside along Redwood Highway did a good job last weekend of trimming shrubs and over-hanging branches and preparing the road for the re-surfacing party which will be held this weekend, at which time the road will be closed to all traffic. School clean-up day, originally scheduled for tomorrow, has been postponed so that all available men may help on the road project. The Sacramento Railroad will cooperate to the extent of smoothing out the railroad crossing.

A SOFT SHOULDER on Pinehurst Road, paralleling the creek was responsible for the bad case of poison oak suffered by Eugene Moraga, and for his demolished car. Loose dirt caused Moraga's car to overturn on a curve and land in the creek, spilling him out in a dense growth of poison oak.

Valerie Allison, Mary Rice and Sheila Jacobs, former Canyon youngsters were weekend guests of Jackie Chessum. The girls enjoyed roller skating in Berkeley Saturday, then returned to Canyon for a slumber party. ("Slumber" is a misonmer, if there ever was one, according to the senior Chessums.)

Five Saved As Pounding Surf Destroys Yacht

Four Lafayette persons escaped injury Saturday when a yacht they were in was trapped in a "visibility zero" fog and caught in pounding surf two miles from Point Reyes Lighthouse.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Garry Grover of 1170 Brown Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Patterson of 1099 Magnolia Lane. Also in the yacht was Walter Gamble of Oakland.

ON BOARD the 33-foot ketch "Romance," the group was headed for the annual regatta of the Inverness Yacht Club when they were caught in 20-foot breakers near Drake's Bay.

"We saw the first wave coming before it hit and partially swamped us," Grover, 33, a contractor, reported. "Then a second breaker knocked us under," he added.

Gamble, 47, a furniture salesman, was at the tiller when the wave hit and was knocked over the stern.

"I was lucky, though," Gamble said, "because a line wrapped around my waist and I was able to pull myself back aboard and head the boat into the beach."

WHEN THE WAVE struck, Grover was in the cockpit. He was knocked down into the cabin, where his wife, Mildred, and the Pattersons were asleep.

The men helped the women with life jackets and then Patterson, 39, a Lafayette attorney and civic leader, and Gamble both jumped into the surf to take a line ashore.

Grover and the two women then followed and made their way to the beach along the line while the $10,000 yacht broke up, scattering wreckage for more than a mile along the coast.

Following a fence and telephone line, the Grovers hiked for nearly three hours. They finally reached the ranch of George Nunes and notified the Point Reyes Coast Guard Station.

THE GROVERS were taken by Coast Guard rescue truck to the Inverness Yacht Club. Gamble and the Pattersons were removed by a party of fishermen.

The yacht was ottally destroyed It had been berthed at Sausalito.

SHE HAS studied at the California Fine Arts and also at Arts and Crafts, and is a member of the Diablo Art Association and the Outdoor Art Shows. She also directed the Orinda Children's Art Center last year.

About our happy Country Folks

By MR. and MRS. THOMAS TELFER
Guest Columnists

FALL IS HERE AGAIN in this old De Laveaga Valley, with the deer coming down again to Lauterwasser Creek along Miner Road. Raccoons have gotten a good portion of local farmers' corn, and the bluejays most of the fruit. Eastern visitors still wish to pick an armful of our beautiful leaves and return to their homes with a big itch. So — "Here we are keeping up the pace" (sung to the tune of Two Sleepy People) for the last fling of our extra warm September.

The Walter Boysens opened the season with a large and perfect cocktail party — one that really worked — a neat trick on the part of the host and hostess. George and Margaret Hauerken really dazzled the guests with two Hawaiian costumes. The host exhibited his latest commercial venture — a 100-foot-high gusher from the middle of the lake — which, it is said, flows high-octane gasoline.

The Boysen home is truly "the dream come true," where the opening of extensive windows and doors allows the guests to be welcomd in a baufully-appointed, hospitable charm, and continue in any direction to an ample terrace-like patio.

From one attractive home to another, following the Children's Hospital party at the Frank Fees, the William Fosters held an impromptu rest-of-the-night party for about 20 guests. Feature attractions were a former Cal oarsman doing special jitterbug stetps, paricularly with our hostess; piano duets, and a lady on the piano (instead of the girl in the fish bowl), which lady, for lack of better identificaiton, we shall call Smith. Imagine, too, hearing operatic arias at that hour and an outstanding Schact family act of piano and whistling. This all goes to prove the value of those uninhibited hours for discovering new talent.

HILL AND DALE held its opening dinner dance at Orinda Country Club last Friday. Among those entertaining at cocktail parties before the event were the Charles Bailey of Charles Hill, Rudy Rusmussens, Valentine Brooks', Fred Bordens, Paul Demetrs, Kirl Miles' and Haywood Gathings', all of Orinda.

Seen at about midnight, the peak of the party, a vision in blue-green disappearing with her dancing partner into the old telephone booth under the club lounge stairs — who was she? — We know it was not the one who required a scotch-taped and stapled hem!

As an observation on the the modern gals having taken over the bars from the men — at this party the so-called weaker sex used the club bar to sit on as the attendants went outside to serve the drinks. And so — that same old pace.

THE RICHARD BREUNER GARDENS were the beautiful setting for the marriage of daughtetr Clare to Fred Velie Cummings of Porterville on last Saturday. An attempted word picture of the organ music, the assembled guests, the attendants' fern-like dresses, white-coated ushers, climaxed by the lovely bride's radiance, can only intimate the depth of feeling in every one present.

The display of gifts proved a definite tendency of combining the practical with the beauty of silver, crystal, china and linen. The elaborate reception and buffet supper were an outstanding evidence of the genial host — the "Father of the Bride." The graciousness of the "Mother of the Bride" was augmenteld by the presence of Dr. and Mrs. Brandon Bassett (Barbara Breuner) and their three children. The latter were the inspiration for grandad's organizing a local club of 100 members (after being introduced to the parent organization in Porterville), and so the "Granddads' Club" now enjoys two gatherings a year, provided, of course, each member has compiled with the rules — initiation fee and a bottle of Old Grandad.

Noted among the guests were Mrs. Melvin Jacobus and Mrs. Lonie Bee in the bonnet fashion for the season — genuine Republican hats — very gay ones, we might add.

Entertaining the guests from time to time were the Leon Woolseys with their magic — Leon juggling multiple lighted cigarettes and burning his hands — Natalie disappearing and reproducing whole packages of same by female magic. Point of this is that a gal need not carry a purse to such events.

AT THE SAME PLACE we were glad to see the Morrish boys, Bill and Tom, fresh back from Europe and remarking, when being served a Norwegian salmon canape, that they had eaten lots of it in its native land this summer.

Returns Indicate Scout Fund Drive In Diablo Area May Pass $39,000 Goal

Swinging into its second and final week the 1952 Annual Joint Boy Scout-Girl Scout Fund Drive for the greater Diablo area, is encouraged with the outlook that the drive's quota of $39,000 will be achieved, if not surpassed.

According to George H. Macey, drive chairman, the last few days of the fund campaign will be devoted, primarily, to reaching people who were previously not home and those who had asked workers to call back at a later date.

MRS. GEORGE MADDEN, Walnut Creek district chairman, reported that in certain areas under her jurisdiction, contributions were far ahead of last year.

In a number of instances, however, she had received word that many residents still were not aware that this area was not receiving one cent for Boy and Girl Scout activities from the current East Bay United Crusade Campaign.

MRS. GEORGE N. Jensen of Lafayette, president of the Girl Scout Diablo Valley Area Council and secretary of this drive's Joint Coordinating Committee, pointed out that the future of next year's scouting activities for both Boy and Girl Scouts is entirely dependent on the success of this drive as no assistance from tax rolls or any civic or charitable source is received.

She also said the greater Diablo area is the only district in the entire country which divides every dollar raised by solicitation equally between Boy and Girl Scouts.

DISTRICTS INCLUDED in the drive are Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville, Diablo, Ygnacio Valley, Pleasant Hill, Gregory Gardens, Fair Oaks, Sehrman Acres.

The entire drive is being conducted by volunteer workers residing in this area, many of whom no longer have children of scouting age.

THEY WERE GUT FOR BLOOD last Thursday in Walnut Creek and they got it — 236 pints of it. Here's one of the many donors who braved the 100-degree heat so that some young man in Korea will get a fighting chance for his life. Giving it — and with a smile — is Mrs. Barbara Lindsay of Seven Hills Ranch. The Red Cross nurse is Ane Jantzen of the Mt. Diablo chapter. The drive was sponsored by the Walnut Creek Elks in cooperation with the local Red Cross. Although below their last drive which netted 330 pints, Mort Brown, Exalted Ruler of the Elks, said he was quite pleased with the resuts considering the high temperature that day. Mrs. Mildred K. Culbertson, executive secretary of Mt. Diablo chapter, said the drive was very successful. Dr. Frank Johnson of the Elks was chairman for the campaign.

Serviceman's Letter Tells Korea Need Of Clothes; Women Realtors 'Pitch In'

Children of South Korea need clothes.

That plea was made in a letter to Mrs. Ardelle Sterling of 2640 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, from her husband James, WO with the Army in Korea.

Sterling wrote urging his wife and friends to send clothing, particularly for children, and told how many American servicemen give part of their pay to help the poverty-stricken Koreans..

MRS. STERLING already has sent clothing contributions but now is seeking support of some organization to collect needed clothing on a larger scale.

She said Navy officials will pick up clothing which is donated, and will handle the packing and shipping.

Similar appeals for clothings aid to Korea have been made by other servicemen serving there.

THE WOMEN'S DIVISION of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board learned of Mrs. Sterling's single-handed efforts to arouse interest and decided to take the job in hand — and it has made the effort its project for the coming year.

The women realtors urge you to call your favorite realtor, giving your name, address and phone number. The realtor will relay this information to Barbara Bates, at Irwin Realty, Lafayette 4426, who will drive out and pick up your donations .

Condon, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Sixth Congressional District, will be on the Truman train as the President arrives at the 16th Street Depot in Oakland at 8:45 tonight. Condon will also be on the platform with President Truman when he speaks at Oakland Auditorium tomorrow evening.

The President's speech will be carried over ABC Radio and Television Channel 7 — KGO, 8:30 p. m. tomorrow.

"Democrats of Walnut Creek, Concord, Lafayette and Danville are invited to join a motorcade going to Oakland to hear the President," Mrs. Sylvia Nesbitt, vice-chairman of the Stevenson-Sparkman campaign in Contra Costa County, announced. "Doors open at 7 o'clock. It's first come, first served. Interested persons are asked to call Democratic Headquarters, Walnut Creek 7944."

Governor Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for President, will speak Wednesday evening, October 15, at 8 o'clock, at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. Condon will be on the platform with Stevenson and will speak before Stevenson does. No tickets are necessary. There will be plenty of seats.

Local USNR Group Plans Anniversary

Members of the United States Naval Reserve Volunteer Composite Unit 12-25 will hold their third anniversary dinner Tuesday night at the Orinda Roost.

Captain Frank Harris, USNR, retired, will speak. His talk will include personal remembrances of his career as well as experiences gained in creating and sustaining interest in reserve activities.

Another guest will be Howard Nemir of Lafayette, a senior at Acalanes High School. Nemir was given the annual award for citizenship by the Naval Reserve last June.

The award consists in engraving the name of the recipient on a plaque retained at the school. A personal gift is to be presented at the dinner.

Lt. John Garretson, USNR, of Lafayette has arranged the program.

Horton Comes to U.N. Stage in 'Nina' Farce

Edward Everett Horton, famous comedian of stage and screen, invades San Francisco's United Nations (formerly Alcazar) Theater next Tuesday evening, bringing with him a top cast in "Nina," a Parisian farce that has earned the plaudits of Eastern critics.

This show marks the first time in many years that Horton has toured nationally. Horton plays a husband whose wife's lover moves into and practically takes over his apartment.

Musicians Wanted For Orchestra

Musicians of amateur standing throughout the Acalanes community are invited to join the community symphony orchestra being organized by Oscar Busch, high school and elementary music instructor.

The group meets Tuesday evenings, 7:30 to 9:30, in the Acalanes gym. "The community symphony orchestra movement has been gaining momentum in Contra Costa and throughout the state in the last few years," Busch says.

"Last year the symphony orchestras of the Acalanes area and Martinez held a joint concert which was well received by Contra Costa music enthusiasts."

Federation Meet Thursday Will Report Latest Road Plans of County, State

Latest information on county road and state highway plans and developements for Contra Costa County will be a highlight of the general membership meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation at Orinda Community Church next Thursday night.

In stressing that point on the agenda of the 8 p.m. public gathering, Federation Chairman, Elliot J. Hartman, this week reported that A. E. Simmons, assistant district highway engineer in charge of design for District IV of the State Division of Highways, has advised the federation board that the State Highway Commission will announce its 1953-54 budget at its meeting the latter part of this month.

"We hope that funds are budgeted for the Orinda Crossroads interchange of the projected Freeway," Hartman said. "If such allocation is made, construction could begin next spring."

COOPERATING with the federation in publicizing next Thurday's meeting and in hosting, it is the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association. "We're trying to get as many people in Orinda as possible to attend the meeting," said Clinton Hallsted, Civic Affairs chairman. "I've sent a letter to each Civic Affairs member and to the president of each local improvement group in Orinda, urging them to come and to bring their neighbors and friends."

Principal speaker will be Professor Harmer E. Davis, director of the Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering at the University of California. He will talk on "Patterns and Problems of Highway Engineering and Transportation."

Hartman stressed that the gathering will be of area-wide interest for Central Contra Costa County, and urged residents of Lafayette, Walnut Creek and elsewhere in this part of the county to attend. Scheduling of the gathering in Orinda, he pointed out, is a step in the federation plan to alternate its membership in different localities.

THE MEETING is open to all interested organizations and individuals, he said.

The Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering was established at U. C. shortly after World War II, and Professor Davis has increased its size from a one-man status to a well-staffed department. Davis regularly attends Highway Commission meetings, and his group serves in an advisory capacity to county road commissioners' offices throught California.

"The road problem is of great interest to nearly everyone at present," Hallsted observed. The Civic Affairs Committee, like many other community groups in this area, has long been an integral part of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation. Horace Breed, a Civic Affairs member and former vice-president of the Orinda Association, is the Orinda Association's representative on the federation board.

Arrangements for next week's meeting have been made by Charles Nelson of Orinda, vice-chairman of the federation.

PROGRESS OF THE county in plans for execution of the $10,250,000 road bond program and in other road work will be reported, Hartman added.

In addition toProfessorDavis' talk, there will be a business session, which will include election of a nominating committee. This committee will present a slate of suggested officers at the November meeting.

Hartman, who will conduct the gathering ,will tell of the board's accomplishments during the summer. These include completion of the Upper Happy Valey and Acalanes Road left-turnouts by the state; appearances before the State Highway Commission to urge early construction of the Orinda overpass, presentations before the State Senate-Assembly Joint Fact-Finding Committee on Highways, stressing needs of this area ,and continued work with the county road commissioner's office on plans under the county road bond issue voted last June.

THE HIGHWAY FEDERATION is launching an intensified membership drive. Dues are $5 per organization per year. Each member-organization has a delegate and an assistant delegate on the federation's General Council, and all others belonging to member-organizations are welcome to attend meetings.

"For that matter," Hartman added, "all interested persons, whether belonging to an actual organization or not, are invited to attend our general meetings. But we particularly want oganizational representation. The better representation we have, the better the chances of our going ahead with our program and serving the aims of the entire earea."

Outlook Good in Therapy Center Fund Campaign

Central Contra Costa's heart is opening up to the needs of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Two weeks ago several thousand letters and circulars were sent to the people of this territory calling attention to the Center's urgent need for funds. Early returns indicate that the needed money eventually will be provided.

The Center now employs four full time therapists. During 1952 more than 7500 treatments will be given to local victims of polio, cerebral palsy, accidents and other crippling conditions.

About one-fourth of these patients can pay little or nothing for their treatments. Because the Center has always been determined to provide treatment for evry patint referred to it, the need for outside money has increased rapidly.

The present financial appeal offers a unique opportunity to to Contra Costans who are willing to help. A contributor can pay his money to a local institution operated by local people.

During the present drive anyone can send any amount of money he wishes direct to Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, 2363 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Just think how much extra time—and money — you spend when you shop "out of town"!

Dons Tackle Bulldog Eleven

The Dons open the 1952 league grid season tonight when they travel to Martinez to play the Alhambra Bulldogs at 8 o'clock.

The Dons to date have lost their two practice tilts with Piedmont, 28-0, and El Cerrito, 25-6, while Alhambra suffered a 43-13 setback at Petaluma in their lone contest to date.

THE DONS HAVE been improving each week, and with several shifts in personnel, plus intensive workouts, could be ready for this one.

The fact remains that both elevens are green and that Alhambra has scored twice in one game to once for the Dons in two.

COACH JIM COULTER of Alhambra is starting his first year at the helm of the Martinez eleven. He comes with a most impressive record and has installed a single wing formation which may give the Dons a lot of trouble before the final whistle has been blown.

Paced by a group of small but fast backs, ace of the Alhambra attack is tailback Charlie Tourville, with Fullback Jerry Huff supplying the power up the middle.

The Alhambra contingent appears to have a passing attack. Despite the fact they threw but four aerials, they batted .500 by completing two for sizeable gains.

THE DONS HAVE added plays to give their attack a wider range and appear ready to put a sustained game together.

Tentative lineup for the Dons appears to include Jim Small and Jerry Henderson at the flanks. Henderson has been out with a bruised shoulder, and if he is not ready Allen Stewart will take over.

Milse White is slated to relieve Small on offensive duty.

Andy Monsen will start at right tackle, with Jim Champion being shifted from end to left tackle.

IT'S A TOSSUP between Tim Daniels and Gary Howerton at the pivot spot, with George Fortado and Bill Johnson as guard, although Allen Dunham may move into one of the spots due to his all-out play in practice this week.

In the backfield, Quarterbacks Sammy Indelicato and Bart Ferro appear to be a tossup, while Roger Owen and Jim Burns will go at the halfback spots, with booming Ray Williamson at the fullback slot.

FRED RAVAZZA will start at defensive half, in view of his good work in the El Cerrito tussle.

Lou Schrepel is recovered from the mumps and appears ready to give someone a battle for starting position in the backfield. Lou is due for action, both on offense and defense, tonight.

Don Babes Tie Livermore 20-20 In Grid Debut

The Acalanes Junior Varsity didn't make its 1952 debut a winning one when it met Livermore's best on the local turf September 25—but it did the next best thing when it banged out a 20-20 tie.

The Dons scored early in the opening period when Livermore's safety muffed John Conley's high 50-yard punt on the 12, and three plays later Dick Jarrett, Don halfback, boomed over the goal stripe on a quick opener from three yards out.

The Don Babes jumped to a 13-0 lead when Dennis Busby hit the end zone on a five-yard fullback smash up the middle. The conversion try was good when John Conley ran the ball into the end zone standing up.

LIVERMORE CAME back with a pass play to score, and when the conversion kick went wide it ended 13-6 at the half.

Livermore came back with a rush in the third and early fourth quarters, to score twice, convert twice, and make it 20-13.

The Dons came back strong in the final minutes with Keith Lescure scoring from five yards out and with Conley passing to Jim Larsen for the all-important point, to tie it all up at 20-20, with time running out before either team had another scoring opportunity.

THE DON BABES opened the league season against Alhambra High on the local turf yesterday, too late to report results.

The starting lineup was Larry Witter and Jim Larsen at ends, Hans Altorfer and Jim Pitto, tackles; Don Ong and Jim Hart, guards, along with Bob Thain at center. In the backfield it was John Conley calling plays from quarterback, with Dennis Busby at full, flanked by Dick Jarrett and Geoffrey Wahl at halves.

IT MAY NOT FEEL LIKE AUTUMN, but if you really want to get in the mood, drive out to Acalanes High School one of these days. There, the afternoons are filled with the sounds of booming punts, crunching tackles, grunting linemen and sobbing coaches. Taking his life in his hands, our intrepid photographer decided to get a few shots of the stalwarts in preparation for their league game against Alhambra at 8 p.m. tonight in Martinez. In the left photo are three of the Don heavy-duty men on this year's squad. Left to right, Guard George Fortado, Fullback Ray Williamson and Guard Geoffrey Dunham. In the center, Gary Howerton, center, prepares to hang a block as hard-running Halfback Bill Shannon gets the pigskin from Quarterback Bart Ferro. In the right photo are Acalanes' ace ends, Jim Champion and Eddie Hunt. The local eleven opens its league play tonight.

Acalanes' Two Grid Teams Show Plenty Of Promise—Need Bit More Experience

By ERWIN MATTSON

The Acalanes Dons appear to have two grid elevens that will win their share of games once they get a bit of game experience.

The Junior Varsity gave flashes of brilliance in its opening game against Livermore last week and showed that it has what it takes when it came from behind to tie the game, 20-20.

A fine set of sophomore backs on the J.V. show real promise for the future and will go a long way toward developing a top varsity eleven in '53 and '54.

THE VARSITY has as yet to win one, but in Piedmont and El Cerrito they have met two of the best.

Despite the 25-6 loss to El Cerrito, the Dons looked good, and it was closer than the final score indicates.

They were leading 6-0 in the half, with 10 seconds on the clock, when El Cerrito hit with a pass and they repeated the performance with 35 seconds to go in the game.

SHIFTING OF PERSONNEL this week should strengthen and balance the club, both offensively and defensively, to the point where it can win.

Much of the answer will come in tonight's game, with Alhambra furnishing the opposition.

I NOTE WITH INTEREST Pittsburg High dropped its first game in 16 outings to Monterey High last Friday night.

The loss may have been the thing that shouldn't have happened as far as league teams are concerned. Pittsburg lives, eats and sleeps football, and now that it has been stung, it may come back stronger than ever.

On the other hand, it may prove to other elevens that Pittsburg can be beaten. Mt. Diablo High, loaded with returning veterans and an undefeated record to date, appears to have the best chance to whip the Pirates. The biggest problem is overcoming a defeat complex, plus the fact that the game will be played at Pittsburg, where the home fans are about as rabid as they come and will, as a result, generate a will to win that will be hard to overcome.

I HAVE ATTENDED Contra Costa Junior College's first two games, and they have been highly entertaining, particularly due to the fact that ex-Dons have taken part; in both instances the local J.C. has copped the win.

One of the most interesting things is to see players from every high schol in the county playing together. Seeing Pittsburg, Acalanes and Alhambra players work out a scoring play does a lot of good in bringing schools together on a closer and more friendly basis.

When you play with the other fellow on your side, you soon discover that he is like your other teammates, with his joy in winning and sorrow in losing. One thing certain is that you really get to know and judge a fellow when you play on the same team with him.

From the way the C.C.J.C. players get along, I would say that we have a fine crop of youngsters in our county high schools.

Schools Again to Be Briefed on CD

Children and teachers new in Contra Costa County schools will be briefed on what to do in case of emergency, according to Charles Ferrell, County chairman of civil defense in the schools.

Ferrell said that he and others from the staff of County Superintendent, B. O. Wilson, will repeat last fall's visit to all schools for the purpose of assisting with civil defense plans. Copies of a bulletin series on defense in the schools have already been distributed, he said.

Acalanes Gridders Play Good Game But Lose to El Cerrito Gauchos 25-6

Acalanes Varsity football eleven dropped its second practice game last Friday night 25-6 against El Cerrito High's highly rated Gauchos.

The score of the game, played at El Cerrito, tells only part of the story, however.

The Dons were in the ball game all the way and, but for a few lapses at critical moments in the defense, could have had the win.

THE DONS MADE their score in the opening quarter. They kicked off and held the Gauchos until they recovered an El Cerrito fumble.

Hard running backs and some sharp line blocks produced results when Jim Burns crashed over guard to hit pay dirt from two yards out.

THE DONS DOMINATED play the remainder of the half except for the final 10 seconds, when El Cerrito tossed a fourth down pass to Halfback Dozier, who grabbed the ball from two defenders in the end zone.

The Dons missed their conversion attempt, and El Cerrito returned the courtesy when their place kicker's boot was low and wide.

IN THE THIRD quarter, El Cerrito jumped to the lead when they scored on a 40-yard drive. They hit the goal line twice in the final quarter, the last of which was on a 40-yard pass which happened when Safety Man Sammy Indelicato and Halfback Roger Owen got crossed up on defensive assignments.

The Dons missed on two other scoring opportunities, one of which came in the second quarter when they had first down and goal to go on the three-yard line, only to be penalized 15 yards for illegal use of the arms on the first down.

IN THE FINAL quarter, paced by the brilliant drives of Fullback Ray Williamson, they drove from midfield to the 12-yard stripe.

The game was the second and last practice tilt for the Dons, who open league play against Alhambra High tonight.

IT FOUND THE Dons greatly improved over the Piedmont game and gave evidence that the inexperienced hands are beginning to develop to the point where they can hit the win column.

Roger Owen, Ray Williamson, Jim Burns and Fred Ravazza did some good running and blocking in the backfield.

Quarterbacks Bart Ferro and Sammy Indelicato displayed good ball handling ability and on occasions showed to advantage with a sharp passing attack.

PASS DEFENSE and end play showed need of further work. Shifts in personnel this week are expected to help the situation, and only game time tonight will tell how effective the changes are.

Andy Monsen, veteran tackles, appears to be the mainstay in the line, with a newcomer at end in the person of Jim Small looking good.

Contra Costa JC Trounces Grant Tech 35 to 12

The Contra Costa Junior College eleven, East Campus, came through with a resounding 33-12 win over Grant Tech recently, to make their 1952 grid debut successful when they invaded Sacramento.

The game, played September 18, was a hard-fought one, with the local J.C. line telling the difference as it opened gaping holes and put on an aerial attack with Tommy Kramer tossing the pigskin all over the place in the second half.

The Vikings of C.C.J.C. scored in the opening minutes when L. C. Joyner returned a punt 50 yards to Grant's 25, and in five plays ended up with Sal Costanza toting the ball over the end stripe, and it was 7-0 when Joyner circled left end for the conversion point.

The outstanding play of the night occurred when Bob Borghesani, famed ex-Don athlete, went back to kick in the fourth quarter only to have a high pass from center go wide and into the end zone.

BOB RACED BACK, picked up the ball on the five yard mark and interference which took him to the ing would-be tacklers and cutting to midfield, where he picked up interference which too khim to the 35-yard stripe.

There he lateraled to halfback Sal Costanza and took the safety out with a resounding shoulder block which enabled Costanza to ramble into the end zone unmolested.

Howard Andrews and George Kallar were other ex-Dons who played for the Vikings.

Former Dons Aid Viking Win Over Vallejo, 31-20

With former Don grid athletes helping to turn the tide, the Contra Costa Vikings of the East Campus Junior College won last Saturday night by a 31-20 score over a willing and rugged Vallejo J.C. eleven in a game played under the lights of Diablo High's gridiron.

The local J.C. eleven was forced to come from behind when the Vallejo Redskins were out in front 20-19 with nine minutes to go in the game.

QUARTERBACK Tommy Kramer, former Diablo flash, settled the issue when he fired a 32-yard pass into the waiting arms of End Bob Borghesani, ex-Acalanes star, in the end zone, which put the Vikings out in front 25-20.

Numerous fumbles, eight to be exact, along with constant penalties, caused the Viking attack to sputter in the late stages of the game after a better than average first half.

Loss of L. C. Joyner, former Pittsburg Pirate great, from the left half spot midway in the second half handicapped the offense, because with him went the ability to skirt the ends. Fortunately, his injury proved minor, and he is ready to go again this week.

HOWARD ANDREWS, Don halfback of last year, saw action as a defensive half, as did John Daniels in the fullback slot.

George Kallar, another ex-Don, did his bit as a defensive guard.

The Vikings go into action again tomorrow night when they will be seeking their third straight win, playing San Francisco State under the arc lights of Alhambra High's field in Martinez. Kickoff time is slated for 8 o'clock sharp.

High School Grid Play—Just What Makes It Tick?

By ERWIN MATTSON

The great majority of the Don football team are playing varsity ball for the first time, and many had never played under the lights prior to this season.

The crowd of over 2500 at the opener against Piedmont, at Acalanes Memorial Field, awed most of them. Each player had the feeling that all of the 2500 were peering down at him.

A few more games will season the players and result in a much smoother performance when stage fright becomes a thing of the past and experience results in self-confidence.

I HAVE ALWAYS FELT that anyone wanting to try football should do so, to find out for himself whether or not he will like the game.

If he finds that he likes it, then well and good, but if not, he will undoubtedly find another field which appeals to him.

The main end of any game for high school should be fun, coupled with a desire to win. To win should be a goal, as that is what our whole American system is based on. Be a good and gracious loser, but there is one thing that should be borne in mind, and that is to do your best and go all out while the game is on. Be a good sport when you lose, but remember one thing — you don't have to like losing!

THERE IS ONE OTHER thing which I have always maintained, and that is that no boy should take part in a game unless he receives satisfaction from the game.

Certain boys receive a satisfaction from football that they can get in no other way.

One of the satisfactions of coaching is to see a squad develop from a group of individuals into a team which functions as a unit and gains teamwork through practice, drill and desire.

Desire is the most important factor in any game. Desire is the drive that makes a good player when coupled with willingness to work to attain the top. Intense desire can make up for lots of things.

I have heard many a coach say that you don't teach tackling, as it depends on desire on the part of the individual.

Shelf-Spacer – Via Plywood

You can make your kitchen cabinets more convenient quite simply by installing vertical ¼" plywood dividers between shelves.

Cut out a partial circle on the exposed edge of each divider.

Then you can stack large platters, plates and pans on edge and get them out easily without having to dig them out from under a heavy stack of dishes.

If the horizontal shelves are removable, they can be grooved to hold the dividers. Otherwis, they can be secured to small stringers ¼"x¼" with glue or finishing nails.

Flowers for the Lazy Man! Perennials Offer Easy Way to Have Many Blooms

By BERT WRIGHT

HAVING PLENTY OF COLORFUL perennial flowers around the yard is an easy way to have lots of blooms without having to sow seed or set ou plants each year.

The perennial border stays put for several years, so when establishing it, do a thorough job.

Dig in a generous amount of organic material such as peat moss or compost, as well as liberal application of complete plant food.

While you are doing the heavy work of soil preparation, have your wife (or husband, as the case may be) do a bit of high class panhandling among your friends and neighbors who have established beds of perennials. October is a good month for separating overgrown clumps of these flowers, and most folks will be glad to give you some plants.

HARDY PHLOX produces giant heads of blooms and many lovely colors. Planted in groups of at least three plants, with the grouping repeated in regular intervals, summer color in your border is assured. Cut phlox roots into two-inch lengths and plant them in an upright position with the top about half an inch below the surface.

Oriental poppies, Gypsophila and blue anchusas can also be increased in this manner.

With Michaelmas daisies or hardy asters, which increase trementdously in favorable seasons, the whole root should be lifted, and the ring of plantlets surrounding the old central root should be the only parts used.

EVEN THOUGH chrysanthemums are in bloom, large clumps can be separated and transplanted now. Give them special attention with the sprinkling can to insure continued flowering.

Early autumn is also the time to set out bulbs for next spring's bloom. Though it is a little late to transplant iris, they still can be moved, providing you mulch them heavily with leaves or grass after the ground freezes.

Each variety of bulb has its preference as to depth of planting, so be esure to follow closely the bulb planting charts available at most garden supply stores.

Junior League Plans Projects for Area

Members of the Junior League living in the Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek areas met recently to discuss the possibility of local volunteer placement. Since the object of the Junior League is to foster interest in its members in all branches of community welfare and to make efficient its volunteer service, it as felt that Junior League members could and should play a major role in the local development of volunteer activities of their communities.

A committee was appointed with Mrs. Robert Brattain of Lafayette and Mrs. Harmon Howard of Walnut Creek as co-chairmen to investigate the possibilities of Junior League placement in the long range planning and activities, civic, cultural, recreational and educational of the fast-growing areas "beyond the Tunnel."

Mrs. James B. Black Jr., Mrs. Edmund Cardin ,Mrs. Edward Pike and Mrs. Thomas B. Rodgers III are among those who comprise the placement committee and are assisting in the research on placement openings.

It is hoped that through the work of this committee the Junior League members who live in these areas will be enabled to contribute their talents locally to the welfare of the communities of which they are a part.

The little chapter house was equipped with two beds and two couches, which were constantly filled during the weekend, as was every available chair.

The Chapter house was well staffed with many first aiders who gave their time and energy most generously in doing everything possible to aid the people coming in. They treated many cases of heat exhaustion, one runner who had developed blisters on his feet, many cut hands, a child who was burned with matches, and one with a bee sting, plus many other various types of ailments.

Of the children who marched in the parade, either in the drill teams or in the band, there were several who received such needed rest and attention.

The First-aid people were: Estelle Kumpf, Barbara Sturgeon, Emily Hirtler, Molly Hearne, Patricia Lynn, George Hearne, Therese McCalister, J.J. Connelly, Marion Halseth, Frances Gray, Aileen Patton, Helen Shank, Marion Conklin, Marylou Arth, May Brown, Dorislee Smith, Beatrice Rowe, Beatrice Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fox, Peggy Sutton, Pat Herrick, Maude Tweed, and Mrs. Mildred Culbertson, who is executive secretary of the chapter and also a First-aider; she gave 13 consecutive hours of her time there on Sundey, September 21, plus being there the other days, too.

Thank You Neighbors
We of Lusiani's, are very happy and proud of the great many of you who attended our opening. By far above our expectation, in fact to the point where we probably should apologize to some of you for not having been able to take care of you in the manner we so much desire. A special thanks to those of you who accepted Lusiani's as your family eating spot. We want you to know that you and your children are welcome here at any time as it is our desire to operate Lusiani's as a dining spot where you too will be happy to take them with you when you go out to dine.
In order to encourage our family dining trade we are preparing a special menu for early diners to be in effect Sunday, October 5th, when you will be able to have a full meal under $2.00 with special child plates. We will open at 3:00 P.M. on Sundays and serve our special menu until 7:30 P.M.
Our cocktail lounge will participate in the building up of our early trade by serving our regular special cocktails at .40c.
Thanks again.
Yours for better dining

1925-The first electric refrigerator was a wonder of the day...
What a blessing this new invention was to housewives! It may have been small and poorly designed by today's standards, but it paid for itself, brought better living to Western homes.
1952–Now it's bigger, thriftier, more useful than ever
There's loads of good living in store for you with a roomy modern refrigerator in your kitchen...with its spacious frozen food chest, its easily adjustable shelves, its special moist storage to keep fruits and vegetables crisp and fresh. Why not build a completely modern kitchen around a big new refrigerator. If your present refrigerator is out-of-date, see your dealer's display of new models today.
And look how P. G. and E. has cut the cost of electricity for home refrigeration... (based on typical monthly use in San Francisco)

Christian Science Topic 'Unreality'

In the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday on the subject "Unreality," this passage will be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Sickness is neither imaginary nor unreal, —that is, to the frightened, false sense of the patient. Sickness is more than fancy; it is solid conviction. It is therefore to be dealt with through right apprehension of the truth of being" (p. 460).

This passage will be included among the citations correlative to the following verses from Matthew:

"And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them" (8:14, 15).

HOW SAFE IS YOUR CAR?
Safety inspection of the car does not end with testing out the brakes and greasing the steering gear. It has to do with every part of the car, including the battery, the carburetor and the electric wiring.

Why Therapy Center Needs Aid from You

Mt. Diablo Therapy Center has become much more than a name during the past four years. It has become synonymous with physical and occupational therapy for physically handicapped persons in this area. Returning such persons to a useful place in society is the concern of the Center.

At present the annual fund drive of the Center is on and will last until about the middle of this month.

Just why is it important for us to contribute to this drive?

Seventy-five per cent of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center's income comes from the service it renders. Twenty-five per cent comes from the community in the form of gifts and donations. Eight auxiliaries are organized to give volunteer services and financial support.

Once each year a fund drive is conducted to raise money for expansion and maintenance of facilities. Last year's drive made it possible to add an extra room for a medical gymnasium.

Future plans of the Center, which is in the Highland Medical Building in Walnut Creek, call for expansion to meet tremendous need. The number of physically handicapped persons in the area is greater than can now be handled.

Establishmet of a sheltered workshop is one of the Center projects for the future. This workshop, where the handicapped person will be able to work to the limit of his capacity, will prove to the patient that he is capable of earning a living, will give him an income while in the process of rehabilitation and will encourage him to seek outside employment.

All this is a rather cold way of trying to convey a very warm and vital truth—that the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center Demonstrates that a democratic community can provide for the needs of its people. So give as much as you can to the Center's fund drive. Mail your contribution to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Highland Medical Building, Walnut Creek, Calif.

MT. DIABLO THERAPY CENTER needs your help — so that it can continue to help crippled youngsters like this as well as physically handicapped adults. The center, serving the people of this area, is now conducting its annual fund drive. Send your contribution to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Highland Medical Bldg., Walnut Creek.

Newspapers Insist on Your Right to Know

This is National Newspaper Week and the theme this year is Your Right to Know.

In this area, The SUN has been trying to fulfill, to the best of its ability, the function of a newspaper—to keep the people well-informed. We hope to do an even better job in the future.

That's why we've sent for advance agendas of all public governmental meetings in the area. It's part of the effort to protect the public's Right to Know. (See story below.)

That right, almost every American realizes, has been effectively blanked out for the peoples of totalitarian countries. But it's also under attack in this country, with censorship in one form or another attempting to deny information to the people about the people's business.

THAT DISTRICTS HAVE HELD secret or unannounced meetings is well-known. Such procedure has no place in a democracy.

Districts spend millions of dollars yearly—on maintenance (schools, roads, plants), fire protection, police protection and other vital projects. The people should know what's going on—it's their money that's being spent.

The Right to Know is not just a one-sided prerogative of the press. It's up to the public to do its full share to safeguard that right and to fight against any infringement of it.

Governmental meetings—County Board of Supervisors, County Planning Commission, Sanitary District, school boards, fire boards, city councils, city planning commissions should be attended by the people. Certainly the improvement associations should send representatives to such meetings.

For the most part, district boards welcome the interest of the public. But usually no one, or almost no one, goes to a board meeting. Once in a while, after a great hue-and-cry has been raised about some controversial issue, a crowd turns up. But for the most part—apathy.

Aroused and active public interest in public proceedings will benefit not only the general public—it will also have a salutary effect on public bodies, which are servants of the people.

YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW is not only the theme of National Newspaper Week. It is a watchword for every week, every day, year in and year out. It's an indispensable corollary of the freedom of the press guaranteed in Article I of the Bill of Rights.

The SUN rededicates itself to ceaseless effort for the public's Right to Know. And in that effort we ask the continued cooperation of our readers—by active participation in community affairs and by helping to keep us informed.

Letters to the Editor

(Editor's note: The following open letter to "Monty" gives the writer's impressions of the recent G.O.P. fund-raising dinner at Diablo Country Club.)

Dear Monty:

Once again, since you are at the moment winding your way across the U. S. on the first leg of your trip to Europe, I shall attempt to fill you in on what went on at the Republican "Crusade for Victory" dinner held last week at the Diablo Country Club.

To begin with, the temper of the whole affair was different from that of the other fund raising dinners. This time there seems less of the feeling that we were mbarking on an "interesting experiment" and "let's enjoy it" than one of using the dinner as an excuse to make a substantial donation since we had to eat somewhere. The idea was crystallized by Ken. Morrish, who M.C.'d the dinner, when he explained that for $100 were were getting a $3.50 dinner without any fuss or molded elephants so that every cent above actual necessity could go to the cause.

MORRISH INTRODUCED our other candidates, John F. (Grass-Roots) Baldwin and Donald Doyle, as well as the 11th District Assembly candidate, Eugene Marshall

Nixon had made a recording to be played at the dinner, since he was unable to be there. When it was played the ovation it received was by no means for the rather mechanically poor transcription, but evidence of the feeling for the man who had a couple of hour before re-sold to every one of us (who had any doubts, that is) on his courage and personal integrity.

PAGE BELCHER, representative from Oklahoma, was the guest speaker, and besides the dry humor which one expects but rarely finds in Oklahomans, made several thaught-provoking statements.

The one that hit me between the eyes was that if one felt that our foreign policy was all right then our domestic policy must be accepted, for it is the result of our foreign policy. That coincides with my answer to the argument that "we never had it so good"—that we are in a war economy which is always inflationary, and the lives of our boys is too dear a price for such good times, especially when a let-down is inevitable under the circumstances.

AFTER THE DINNER, we asked a few people over to talk it over. The main thing we came up with is: Why does anyone run for public office? We had all seen Nixon when he talked to a handful of people at the Plaza in Lafayette during his last campaign, we have seen Doyle and Baldwin rush from one meeting to another to sit cooling their heels for hours to say a few words. To those who are in, we decided, there must be many reasons to fight to stay in, but to these men who are giving so much of themselves to help clean up a situation they feel must be changed for the good of the country, our hat's off to 'em!

I'm sure you will have set the wheels in motion to get your absentee ballot sent to you, but what about the other of our compatriots over there? Be sure to remind them it's later than they think, both time-wise and situation-wise. Have a grand time over there, and here's hoping we shall have things well in hand by the time your return.

MARJORIE McALLISTER

Sun Asks Advance Agendas of All Governmental Meetings in Area

The SUN has written to the Sanitary District, all fire and school districts and city bodies in this area for advance agendas of meetings. Such advance agendas are regularly received from the County Board of Supervisors and the County Planning Commission.

The letter from the SUN states:

"To help you do an even better public relations job in the future, may we have a copy of your agenda as far ahead of your regular meetings as is possible?

"We have already received agendas from some public bodies, and are now requesting them from all districts, etc., within our area. This will help us cover your story and explain your problems to your constituents.

"We have a small staff and often are unable to cover all meetings. But we hope to do better in the future.

"We welcome your suggestions and offer The Sun in any way to help you in your task. If we may be of service, please call."

Martinez Merry-Go-Round

Public Hearing Changed to Oct. 15 on County Planning Body Reorganization

Third public hearing before the County Planning Commission on reorganization of that body, originally set for October 17, is now scheduled for October 15, 3:30 p. m.

Considered of great importance for Central Contra Costa County, the proposed reorganization would set up a "revolving committee" to handle land use permits and thus enable the commission and its technical staff to devote more time to long-range planning.

SUBDIVISION CONFERENCE ON LOT SIZES

Reason for the shift in date is that the Planning Commission will meet earlier on October 15 with the Board of Supervisors and the citizens' advisory committee on land and subdivision problems. That session — which is not a public hearing but a conference — will start at 2.

That conference will take up the recommendation of the citizens' group subcommittee on lot sizes that quarter-acre be the minimum lot size for agricultural areas, instead of the present half-acre. According to George H. Cardinet Jr. of Concord, citizens' committee chairman, the recent report of the subcommittee on sewage and water pollution, recommending a $75,000 county appropriation for a survey, will probably also be discussed.

URBAN PLANNING COMMISSION?

Whether an urban planning commission, as suggested by the 1951-52 Grand Jury, should be established is still undecided among members of the County Planning Commission and the various city planning commissions of the county. On Tuesday night, at a meeting of the county group with city planning representtives, Douglas Gould of the El Cerrito Planning Commission was added to the committee to study the problem.

Other members of this committee are Arthur Young, county planning commissioner from this area; Chairman Michael Czaja of the Walnut Creek Planning Commission and Chairman Norbert Gehringer of the Concord Planning Commission. Next joint meeting of the county and city planners is tetatively set for some time in December.

1,500,000 PEOPLE HERE WILL NEED LOTS OF WATER

Ultimate population of Central and Western Contra Costa County is estimated at 1,500,000, C. E. Mayers of the State Water Resources Board told county and city planning commissioners at their joint meeting in Martinez Tuesday night. TAXPAYER GROUP'S NEW RESEARCH SERVICE

A "governmental research service" is being set up by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association. According to President Gerald S. Morrison, association executive director, and William R. Zion, research director.

Deardorff said the association has received requests to conduct studies of local problems which the larger administration survey firms have been unable to make. These include incorporation studies and analyses of consolidation or reorganization of special districts, cost estimating of proposed methods of financing local programs, and studies of the efficiency of existing governmental agencies and programs.
